

Great Game Huddle Notes

December 6th, 2016

Commissioner Harold Bengsch introduced our Guest of Honor today, Commissioner Roseanne Bentley. Commissioner Bentley will be retiring this month after serving the citizens of Greene County for twelve years. She will be greatly missed.

Roseanne gave a presentation on our Character Core topic this month – Gratefulness.

Gratefulness is defined as demonstrating appreciation to others for what they have done, and how they have helped. Also, to appreciate what you have and to look for the positives in your life and not the negatives. Here are some ways to show gratefulness in your life:

- Give outward expressions of appreciation. Say thank you, and let people know they are appreciated to improve morale.
- Change your perspective and give thanks daily.
- Benefit others. Look for ways to invest in others and support them emotionally.
- Seize fundraising opportunities.
- Recognize the benefits of these practices.

“Contemplate the good things in your life and be grateful for them.” – Rebecca Pidgeon

After the presentation, Commissioner Bentley was presented a box of cards from offices all over Greene County who want to wish her well on her new journey. Roseanne has dedicated her life to public service, and has exemplified gratefulness to us all. We are grateful for her!
