

Great Game Huddle Notes

November 7, 2017

Cindy Stein gave the Character First presentation, “Dependability”.

- Be careful what you promise
- Get it done with a good attitude
- Communicate when you realize your task can't be completed as expected.

It can be a habit to wait until the last minute to complete a project. Make it a habit to start early.

“In a moment of decision, the best thing to do is the right thing.” Roosevelt

Harold Bengsch said in his 13 years with the county he has observed a great deal of dependability in county employees. The employees do their jobs, day to day, without much complaint. Harold is proud of Greene County employees and appreciates what they do.

Commissioners Corner:

Bob Curtin talked about the sales tax campaign. He thinks the tax will pass. Around $ 60k was raised for the campaign. $ 10k was turned down yesterday but will be available future campaigns.

Bought with the funds:

- 4 electronic billboards (3 additional were donated by the sign company and 1 additional was paid for by the Apartments Association).
- 30 signs
- TV ads
- Facebook ads
- 5,000 push cards

40 people showed up to help with the door to door campaign.

There were 2 favorable Letters to the Editor

Everything that the Commissioners wanted to do in this campaign was done.

Justin Hill commended the Commissioners for their leadership in this campaign

The temporary jail is ready to go. The Sheriff is having a hard time hiring people to staff it.
