

Great Game Huddle Notes

January 16, 2018

Midwest Public Risk Conferences:

Mailyn Jeffries – approximately 12 Greene County employees go who “interface” with Midwest Public Risk, i.e. HR, Auditor, Sheriff, and Building Operations departments.

Angela Waller - spoke about her experience at the September 2017 MPR Conference. The keynote speaker was Ross Shafer who spoke about creating “unpaid” spokespeople for your brand. Angela attended seminars that included how to keep employees and benefits.

Health Assessments:

Mailyn Jeffries gave a brief update about the Health Assessments coming this spring.

Why should you take the assessment?

- Encouragement to take advantage of preventative care and health improvement programs
- A healthier population creates lower health benefit costs and a more productive work force
- The assessment can help you identify conditions you don't know about like diabetes or high blood pressure
- You can't be forced to take the assessment
- If you choose not to take the assessment, you will be charged 10% of the insurance premium

New employees were introduced:

HR Department: Michelle Jincks, Keyshya Seifner

Environmental: Brad Ward
