

Great Game Huddle Notes

March 06, 2018

Character First Tyler Goodwyn gave an excellent presentation on the Character First topic "Honesty".

You can admit you made a mistake you can move on. We don't have to get hung up on who made the mistake.

Be honest with yourself.

Let a person know if he/she is doing wrong.

Be honest in general. It is easier to remember the truth than keeping track of lies.

Whoever can be trusted with little can be trusted with much.

Commissioners Corner – Bob Cirtin and Harold Bengsch

An architect is being selected for the new Operations Center.

Purchasing is working on documents to choose the architect for the new jail. A group visited other jails around Missouri last week. The interview team includes Chris Mericle, Chris Coulter, Tina Phillips, and Crystal Richardson. There are also 3-4 employees from the Sheriff's Office.

A sky bridge will be constructed over Boonville connecting the current jail with the new jail.

A group visited other jails around Missouri.

3 wells will have to be dug to see if there are any remaining vapors from the old cleaning business.

The Commission will have an answer next week as to whether vacation time has to be donated when sick time is donated.
