

Great Game of Huddle Notes October 16, 2018

Angie Crews opened this morning's Huddle by introducing Jason Hynson, Executive Director of Victory Mission, who shared how the Great Game of Business has made a positive impact in their organization.

Victory Mission + Ministry: "Every life has purpose"

Purpose and History: A faith driven organization that provides emergency relief through outreach services and long-term empowerment through programming and social enterprise.

Mission: "We share God's love through intentional relationships for the restoration of a brokenhearted world." This may come from donors, volunteers, churches, friends, community supporters, and the staff of Victory Mission.

Values: Love, relationships, restoration

Strategies of Victory Mission: This includes both outreach and restoration.

- Outreach
 - a) Victory Square (1st and 30th of each month) (417-864-2235)
 - b) Message and meal (served 6 days a week)
 - c) SingleMomzRock (Love for single moms)
 - d) Food pantry and clothing vouchers (417-864-2219)
 - e) Back to school bash
 - f) Street Chef (417-864-2200)
 - g) Holiday baskets
 - h) Church partnerships

- Restoration
 - a) Women's Restoration Program: Bible study, boundaries, restoration/recovery, housing, etc.
 - b) Men's Restoration Program: Bible study, healthy relationships, restoration/recovery, housing, volunteering, internships, career readiness, work development, etc.
 - c) Social Enterprises: putting individuals to work and developing interns to impact the workforce

God's Restoration: Trust in the Lord and do good. Take delight in the Lord. Commit everything you do to the Lord.

How can you help: Pray, volunteer and help serve, build relationships, give financially. "No money, no mission!"
