

Great Game of Huddle Notes December 4, 2018

Rhonda Sneed opened today's Huddle by introducing the Character Core video on Respect.

RESPECT: Helps you walk life's journey in ways that may be outside your personal norm!

- Treating others with honor and dignity
- Valuing the thoughts, ideas and opinions of others
- By showing respect, it shows worth and value to others
- Treat others the way you wish to be treated
- Appreciation, consideration, honor, esteem, recognition, courtesy

Look Beyond Appearances:

- Recognize the inherent value in each and every person
- Recognize each person's uniqueness and worth as a human being
- Make a great first impression
- Learn how you can be a part of someone else's journey
- Believe in their potential
- Make a statement about them

Respect Differences:

- Find ways to connect with others who are different than you
- Respect all team members, even if there are differing opinions
- Find ways to connect with different cultures, races, religions, generations or even departments within ones organization
- Create relationships
- Set the stage for communication

Show Your Appreciation:

- Show kindness and appreciation to others because you care, not because you want something in return
- Practice common courtesies
- We are all in a "service minded" career, so act and think about others in such a manner
- Big or even little examples can show respect

Commission Corner:

- Continuing to work on the 2019 budget
- Operation's Building still moving forward, with an estimated completion date of spring 2019.
