Budget Officer Jeff Scott told the Commission that Deputy Budget Officer Tina Phillips would be attending a Midwest Public Risk conference this week. He said Deputy Budget Officer Mike Cagle is working on projections. Scott also noted that he met with County Counselor John Housley regarding the park sales tax.

County Administrator Chris Coulter gave an update about the Domestic Violence Board.

Chief Executive Assistant Kate Morris informed the Commission that the Historic Sites Board nominated an applicant for appointment to the board, and the Commission was slated to vote on it the upcoming Thursday.

Public Information officer Donna Barton told the Commission that she is working to get the Tax Oversight Board minutes on the County website. Coulter noted that the board's last meeting was held in the media room of the Public Safety Center. They liked that location and noticed that the location made it possible to video record the meetings. They would like to hold it there again. Barton said she is working on getting more video of various Commission and County meetings.

Meeting adjourned.
