Pursuant to Sec. 115.427, RSMo., of Missouri election laws, this voter has been allowed to cast a provisional ballot by the judges of elections at this polling place because the voter's identity was not verified.

There are two ways your vote counts:

1. If you come back to your polling place before 7PM and show a current photo ID (see other side for Option 1), your vote counts.

You and the election judges will then complete a Provisional Ballot Transmittal Slip if you return with a photo ID. This will ensure your vote will count.

2. If your signature matches the signature on file in the voter database, your vote counts.
